

#WEARBLUEFORDIABETES

WEAR BLUE FOR DIABETES

Type 1 Diabetes Resources List 2021

SA Diabetes Advocacy is an NPO that brings together all the diabetes patient organisations in South Africa, to work together as the patient voice for diabetes in SA. www.diabetesadvocacy.org.za

Sweet Life is South Africa's largest online diabetes community. We are a non-profit community of South Africans with Diabetes that informs, inspires and connects people with diabetes in SA. www.sweetlife.org.za

Diabetes South Africa is a non-profit organization, founded in 1969 to be a support and an advocate for all people with diabetes in South Africa. www.diabetessa.org.za

Bete It is a South African non-profit organisation striving to support, advocate and empower Type 1 diabetics as well as creating a platform for awareness and education. For type ones, by type ones. www.facebook.com/Betelt

YT1 (Youth Type 1) is a Type 1 and Youth division of Diabetes SA, run by a committee of dedicated T1 diabetics and parents of T1 diabetics. Their mandate is to provide support for T1 diabetics nationwide in the form of children's camps, fun days, support groups and networks. www.diabetessa.org.za/category/yt1/

Kids Powered by Insulin is a Facebook support group for parents with kids with Type 1 diabetes. They believe in positive T1d parenting.

www.facebook.com/groups/Kidspoweredbyinsulin/

Youth With Diabetes (YWD) is a registered nonprofit organisation (NPO 057-954) that empowers kids, teens and young adults living with diabetes to live happy, healthy lives. We empower our members through the use of peer-to-peer education on diabetes camps and also offer teacher training in schools.

www.youthwithdiabetes.com